

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF MICHIGAN
SOUTHERN DIVISION

TAMMY STASKIEVITZ,

Plaintiff,

v.

Case No. 12-15213

COMMISSIONER OF SOCIAL SECURITY,

Defendant.

ORDER ADOPTING MAGISTRATE JUDGE'S REPORT AND RECOMMENDATION AND DISMISSING COMPLAINT

Pending before the court is the report and recommendation of United States Magistrate Judge Charles E. Binder, to whom the case had been referred for review pursuant to 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1)(B) and Appendix C of the Local Court Rules. (Dkt. #19). The magistrate judge recommends that Plaintiff's motion for summary judgment be denied and that Defendant's motion for summary judgment be granted. Plaintiff timely filed a paper labeled "objections," pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 636(b)(1) and E.D. Mich LR 72.1(d)(2). (Dkt. #20).

The court adopts the recommendation of the magistrate judge and orders that judgment be entered on behalf of Defendant.

I. STANDARD

The filing of timely objections requires the court to "make a de novo determination of those portions of the report or specified findings or recommendations to which objection is made." 28 U.S.C. §636(b)(1); see also United States v. Raddatz, 447 U.S. 667 (1980); United States v. Walters, 638 F.2d 947 (6th Cir. 1981). This de novo review requires this court to examine the relevant pleadings and such evidence as may have been submitted in support of the motions to determine the outcome of the motions. A failure to file objections, or a failure to file specific objections, each constitute a waiver of any further right of appeal. United States v. Walters, 638 F.2d 947 (6th Cir. 1981), Thomas v. Arn, 474 U.S. 140 (1985), Howard v. Secretary of HHS, 932 F.2d 505 (6th Cir. 1991). Filing of objections that raise only some issues in the report and recommendation, but fail to raise others with specificity, will not preserve all the objections a party might have. Smith v. Detroit Federation of Teachers Local 231, 829 F.2d 1370 (6th Cir. 1987), Willis v. Secretary of HHS, 931 F.2d 390 (6th Cir. 1991).

II. DISCUSSION

Each written objection presented pursuant to Federal Rule of Civil Procedure 72(b) must be “specific” and address the “proposed findings and recommendations.” Fed. R. Civ. P. 72(b). This court expects that each such objection will be numbered, identify a proposed finding or conclusion, and explain why and how the magistrate judge’s analysis is incorrect. In order for this court to apply meaningful de novo review, it is insufficient for the objecting party to simply incorporate by reference earlier pleadings or reproduce an earlier unsuccessful motion for dismissal or judgment (or response to the other party’s dispositive motion). Insufficient objections to a magistrate judge’s analysis will ordinarily be treated by the court as an unavailing general objection. See Howard, 932 F.2d at 508-509 (“A general objection to the entirety of the magistrate’s report has the same effects as would a failure to object. The district court’s attention is not focused on any specific issues for review, thereby making the initial reference to the magistrate useless. The functions of the district court are effectively duplicated as both the magistrate and the district court perform identical tasks.”); Spencer v. Bouchard, 449 F.3d 721, 725 (6th Cir. 2006) (“Overly general objections do not satisfy the objection requirement.”).

Here, Plaintiff fails to present any argument which would provide a reason to even review, let alone reject the magistrate judge’s Report and Recommendation. Rather than pointing to any specific objection to the magistrate’s proposed findings and recommendations, Plaintiff provides an abbreviated version of her motion for summary judgment.

Plaintiff’s presentation in this instance shall be treated as if Plaintiff had simply failed to object at all. As discussed above, Plaintiff’s opposition brief does not even mention the magistrate judge’s report and recommendation, let alone raise any issue which has any bearing on the magistrate judge’s analysis in the report. With no objections presented, Plaintiff has waived the right to de novo review by this court and further right of appeal. Walters, 638 F.2d at 949-50; Arn, 474 U.S. at 155; Howard, 932 F.2d 508-09.

The court has nonetheless read the report and recommendation, and finds that it is well-reasoned, thorough, and correct.

IV. CONCLUSION

For the reasons discussed above, IT IS ORDERED that the magistrate judge’s report and recommendation [Dkt. # 19] is ADOPTED IN FULL and incorporated by reference. IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that judgment shall enter for Defendant, and that the findings of the Commissioner are AFFIRMED.
